Individual Contribution

Lee Phan

37738425

Collected dataset to use for training. Helped label dataset.

Wrote video collection script in Python and the user interface of the presentation program. Built the majority of the underlying training and testing pipeline, including the cross-validation function and accuracy metrics.

I also helped build some of the augmentation code using opencv.

For final report, wrote introduction/problem, researched projects that were similar to ours and wrote related works, and dataset.